Explanation of changes to your 2006 Form 1040

This section tells you specifically what income information the IRS received about you from others (including your employers, banks, mortgage holders, etc.). This information doesn't match the information you reported on your tax return.

Use the table to compare the data the IRS received from others to the information you reported on your tax return to understand where the difference(s) occurred. To assist you in reviewing your income amounts, the table may include both reported and unreported amounts.

Misidentified income

If any of the income shown on this notice is not yours, send us the name, address, and social security number of the person who received the income. Please notify the payers to correct their records to show the name and social security number of the person who actually received the income, so that future reports to us are accurate.

Form W-2 or 1099 not received

The law requires you to report your income correctly. If your payers did not send you a yearly income statement (Form W-2, Form 1099, etc.), you must use the information you have (pay stubs, monthly income statements, deposit slips, etc.) to estimate the total amount of income you received during the year.

Schedule A miscellaneous deductions percentage limitation

Miscellaneous deductions are reduced by 2% of your adjusted gross income (Form 1040, line 37). Since we refigured your adjusted gross income, we also refigured your miscellaneous deduction.

Self-employment tax on self-employment (SE) income

Self-Employment (SE) generally includes nonemployee compensation and other income from part-time or full-time work and is subject to Self-Employment Tax. We figured the Self-Employment Tax on the net SE income reported on your return and/or on the underreported SE income. Self-Employment Tax consists of Social Security Tax of 12.4% and Medicare Tax of 2.9%. (Even if you have paid the maximum amount of Social Security Tax, you are still liable for additional Medicare Tax.) The deduction for one-half of the Self-Employment Tax is based on the change we made to your Self-Employment Tax. If you were an employee, you will be liable for income tax and the employee's share of Social Security (6.2%) and Medicare taxes (1.45%). Your social security account will be credited with the amount of Self-Employment income shown on this notice.

Overclaimed withholding

Our records indicate you are entitled to a lesser amount of withholding than the amount claimed on your tax return. Please send us a copy of Form(s) W-2, 1099, and/or over withholding documentation from the payer(s) to verify the additional withholding claimed on your tax return.

Next steps

- You don't need to file an amended tax return for 2006. We will make the correction when we receive your response. However, if you choose to file an amended tax return (Form 1040X), write "CP2000" on the top of your amended federal tax return (Form 1040X) and attach it behind your completed Response form. Go to www.irs.gov to download Form 1040X or call 1-800-TAX-FORM ([redacted]).
- Please file an amended tax return (Form 1040X) for any other tax years in which the same error occurred.
- We send information about these changes to state and local tax agencies, so if the changes we made apply, file an amended state or local tax return as soon as possible.

Interest charges

We are required by law to charge interest on unpaid tax from the date the tax return was due to the date the tax is paid in full. The interest is charged as long as there is an unpaid amount due, including penalties, if applicable. (Internal Revenue Code section 6601)

Description	Amount

The table below shows the rates used to calculate the interest on your unpaid amount due. For a detailed calculation of your interest, call [redacted].
